The County School Board Prepares a Splendid List of Studies.

Lone Oak Building Will Be Used This Term.

WHAT THE STUDIES ARE

The course of study for the new county High school was adopted yesterday by the county school board which discussed many questions concerning the new school. As it was impossible to erect the new building at Heath in time for the beginning of the session the first county High school will be conducted at Lone Oak in the old college building. For the first year a good attendance is promised, and there will be classes for every class of the course extending over four years. There will be one graduate next June.

The board took up the discussion of building next year and adopted the specifications. It was decided to advertise for bids, and they will be opened September 11, when it is expected to award the contract, although the board has reserved the right to reject all bids. The estimated cost of the building will be about $8,000.

The course of study was prepared by J. S. Ragsdale, principal of the school, and Superintendent S. J. Billington. It is devoted more to the classics than scientific or agricultural subjects. Division Board Meeting.

Mrs. Mary Houch, teacher of the Rowlandtown county school, was exonerated on charges of partiality last night at a meeting of the board of sub-division No. 5, in school division No. 4, presided over by Trustee W. R. Davis. The teacher was re-elected last year, and some of the patrons of the school objected to her teaching the school, and petitions pro and con were circulated by the patrons of the school. Nineteen signed the petition asking that the teacher be removed while 29 signed the petition requesting the board not to remove Mrs. Houch. The board followed the wishes of the majority, and exonerated her of charges of partiality among pupils.

At the division board meeting Prof. W. A. Middleton, principal of the consolidated school, offered his resignation effective, if he secured the appointment as county school superintendent for four months. L. B. Alexander, assistant principal of the school was elected principal to succeed Middleton, should his resignation become effective. Miss Harrison and Miss Browning were placed in nomination to succeed Alexander, but neither was elected as a tie vote was cast.

Big Prosperity Wave is Bounding Toward Paducah Freighted With Big Cargo of Good Things For Us

Men Who Know Predict Best Boom in Town's History And Tell About Some of the Things Promised.

Paducah men who are in a position to know are more optimistic about the city future than they have ever been before in its history. Whether it is the news of the new railroads coming to Paducah or not, there is something responsible for a boom, which is now undercurrent, that will be the biggest that has ever struck the town.

All kinds of improvements are being planned by local concerns, to be made soon. The brewery has already announced it will expend $35,000 on its plant.

The First National bank is only waiting to decide on the character of building it will erect to award the contract.

Next week there will be a representative here of a big machine and foundry plant, seeking a location. Next week, too, contracts will be awarded for the new building to be erected by John Hodge for tobacco rehandling.

The city has already awarded contracts for the city hall improvements, and will let the contract for the new fire station Monday.

Plans for the erection of a long-promised sky scraper are to be gone over and the site inspected here next week, for a building to cost over $100,000.

The N., C. & St. L. will, in all probability build a new depot, and enlarge its round house here into a fair decent size railroad shop.

Options have been given the past few weeks on the river for a big, new manufacturing plant, to employ 300.

A representative will be here next week to investigate the city for the location of a factory on the North side of town to employ 150.

And still another, this time a gentleman from Indiana will be here to seek a location for a manufacturing plant, which will merely supplement one he has been operating night and day for six years.

All of this information is in The Sun office, but as usual under such circumstances, none of it can be used until the plans for each are consummated. And, publication of the items now is merely made to give testimony to The Sun's recent statements that a boom is headed Paducah's way.

THOUGHT IT WAS A BOMB.

Russian Consul-General Clung to the Arm of a Policeman.

New York, Aug. 28.—A loud report just behind his automobile caused Baron Schlippenbach, the Russian consul-general, to leap from the machine at Fifth avenue and grasp the arm of a traffic patrolman, Aleck Nittel.

The consul-general's face was as white as chalk.

"He thought it was a bomb," said Nittel, in relating the incident, "but it was only the explosion of one of his rear tires."

The damage to the baron's car was caused by another chauffeur trying to pass and striking the tire of the Russian's car with the hub of his own machine.

NEGRO FIEND.

Chased By Mob For An Attack on White Girl at Meridian.

Meridian, Miss., Aug. 28.—An armed mob with bloodhounds is pursuing a negro who attacked the sixteen-year-old daughter of J. B. Williams, a farmer near here, and then fired her father's house. The girl was alone in the house when attacked, but broke away, jumped through a window and ran to farm hands.

Shoots at a Dog And Kills Horse

The story has often been told of the man who shot at a rabbit and killed a mule, but John M. Gentry residing at 512 North Fifth street had the misfortune, while shooting at a dog that had been a nuisance in his neighborhood for some time, to kill a neighbor's horse.

Mr. Gentry had been worried for some time with the incessant barking at night of a dog in the neighborhood, and all efforts to get rid of it had failed. Yesterday morning he went to Chief Collins and asked permission to shoot the dog if last night it paid its usual nocturnal visit. He got the permit and secured a revolver and then waited for the canine to put in its regular visit.

He did not have long to wait. As soon as he heard the dog in his back yard indulging in its usual nightly howl, he proceeded through the house to the rear porch, and spying the dog, took a bead on it and fired The shot missed the dog and struck the sidewalk which is constructed of slate, and bouncing, bored through a hole in the fence forty feet away and hit the horse of Fred Mooney, a neigh bor, killing it almost instantly.

"I do not know how that shot took such a course," said Mr. Gentry in telling of it today, "and would not have thought such a thing possible if it had happened to any one else. A half second after the bullet went astray I heard a horse neigh, and so did Mr. Mooney, and when we went to investigate we found it dead."

Athens, Aug. 28.—King George today summoned a special session of parliament for September 13, when it is announced, he will hand in his resignation and abdicate because of Cretan troubles, particularly on account of failure of annexation.

ROY FORMEN LOSES THREE FINGERS IN AN ACCIDENT

By an accidental discharge of a shotgun, Roy Formen, 20 years old, had three fiingers torn off of his right hand. Formen is a section had at Rockport for the Illinois Central railroad company, and while examining a gun dropped it. The jar snapped the trigger, and the shot struck him in the hand. He was brought to the Illinois Central railroad hospital, and it was necessary to amputate three fingers.

THAT BRIDGE SHOULD CROSS AT PADUCAH

—N. M. BURN

With Joe Ramsey, Jr., and E. Klotz, He Drops In On Visit Today.

Running Line Through Southern Illinois to River.

SAYS PADUCAH FUTURE ROSY

Joseph Ramsey, Jr., N. M. Burns and E. Klotz, of St. Louis, are in the city today. Mr. Ramsey was formerly president of the Wabash railroad and is now at the head of a new road being constructed out of Pittsburg, and is one of the big railroad men of the country. N. M. Burns is president of the Toledo, St. Louis & New Orleans railroad, which is now building its extension from Golconda to Thebes, Ill., and headed south. Mr. Klotz is a prominent capitalist.

Here On a Visit.

When seen by a Sun reporter at The Palmer today, Mr. Burns, who is a frequent visitor in Paducah and who has always seen great things ahead for the city, said: 'We have no news to give out. We are merely here on a visit to your town. It is Mr. Ramsey's first trip here. I have always been anxious to have him visit Paducah, and as he was near here we just ran over to visit you a few hours."

"Is your road contemplating coming to Paducah," the reporter asked.

"I can not say that it is," he replied. "We are now running a line from Golconda to Thebes and work is progressing nicely."

"What do you think of the probabilities of a bridge across the river from here to Brookport," the reporter asked.

"Well, sir, I co not think that you have lost the opportunity for one," he quickly replied. "You know I have always contended that Paducah is the natural location for that bridge, but somehow I have never been able to convince your good people of that fact. You remember when I was here before I told you that same story, and you would not believe it.

"But," protested the reporter, "we are told that bridge authorities have said that a bridge at Metropolis can be built for much less than here, and it is the best place for it."

"That story is told you by folk with axes to grind—selfish interests," he replied. "You Paducah people should get busy now and go out after that bridge. It is not too late."

Mr. Burns has great confidence in the future of Paducah and Brookport, and says that some day, being the head of the all-year open harbor, he would not be surprised to see this one of the large towns of the south. With Mr. Ramsey and Mr. Klotz in Mayor Smith's auto he visited around the city to give these gentlemen an insight into the business activity of the town.

"As to our road coming to Paducah, it is merely a question of the location of that bridge. If it is put up here, to Paducah we shall come, but if it goes to Metropolis, we are going there, too."

"The Toledo, St. Louis & New Orleans road is headed for the south, as are three other lines that are over in Southern Illinois, not far from here, and the town that gets that bridge is the one that will be most profited," said a local man who is in close touch with the railroad propositions." "It means so much to us that Paducah must be up and doing," he concluded.

DEMOCRATS

INSTRUCT FOR FINN FOR RAILROAD COMMISSIONER.

Sixteen Democrats met in a convention this afternoon at the court house and instructed delegates to vote for Lawrence B. Finn at the Democratic convention at Owensboro next Wednesday to select a nominee for railroad commissioner from the First district to succeed the late McD. Ferguson. Little interest was had in the convention as Finn was the only candidate and the convention adjourned in two finutes. The delegates were instructed to favor the nomination of W. A. Berry as temporary chairman.

W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., county chairman, called the convention to order, and he was made permanent chairman, while Police Judge Cross was made secretary.

Plans Are Being Made to Handle The Biggest Quantity of Tobacco This Season Ever Marketed Here

One-fourth Crop is Cut and Prospects Are For a Fair Crop---Competition Will Result in Good Prices.

One-fourth of the tobacco crop in the Black Patch has been cut, and the farmers are busy cutting the weed. The crop this year will be light, and a good stiff price will reign, is the opinion of the tobacco buyers. In the spring the growers were handicapped by wet weather and a scarcity of plants was felt over the entire section of western Kentucky and Tennessee. The dry, hot weather has injured the tobacco this summer, and a tobacco buyer said he expected the yield would be much shorter than last year.

Despite the fact of an apparent shortage Paducah will be a better tobacco market this fall than ever before in the history of the city. Representatives of buyers from every important tobacco consuming country on the globe are located in Paducah this fall, and Paducah will take a high rank as a tobacco market. Previously much of the dark tobacco of this section has been shipped to Louisville, Mayfield and Clarksville, Tenn., but this year a great quantity of it will be sold through the buyers stationed in Paducah. Never before has Paducah boasted of such a gathering of representative tobacco buyers as are here, and great preparations are being made by them to take care of the business.

Bids will be opened September 11 for the erection of the stemmery and rehandling house of John Hodge & company, while A. Jarvis will open his house on South Third street soon. And in a few days announcements will be made of other firms embarking in the trade here.

The Business Situation.

Bank clearings this week were $467,328. And business with the bank has been quiet. This is probably the dullest season of the year with banking institutions, but it is short of duration.

The retailers are doing some fall business already and the summer business is holding up very well.

Wholesalers give out very good reports of conditions and say their business the past few weeks gives every indication of a substantial improvement in the conditions in Paducah territory.

Paducah manufacturers are booking some very good orders. The knitting mills is in operation again after a short time shut down and most all of the other local plants are now running with full forces.

The real estate market is brightening up considerably. "I do not know to what to attribute it," said an agent today, "but when you price a bit of property now you will find the owners asking a great deal more than they were a few months since. Railroad talk is undoubtedly one of the causes. The other may be a general improvement in conditions.

EGAN STREET

PROPOSED NAME OF PROBABLE STREET THRU HUNTINGTON ROW.

Prospects look good for the Illinois Central Railroad company opening up a street west of the shops along Huntington row. Yesterday afternoon A H. Egan, superintendent of the Louisville division, inspected the site, and it is thought that he will recommend the deeding of the property to the city. By opening the street much travel on Tennessee street can be averted, and the possibility of erecting a viaduct on Tennessee street could be averted for a few years which would be a big saving to the railroad.

At present the marketers and the farmers on the Mayfield road must cross the two sets of tracks, and it is recognized as a dangerous place. By opening up the street, and not be obliged to traverse the tracks. Already the friends of Mr. Egan have announced they will name the street "Egan Avenue," in honor of the superintendent.

HARRIMAN

MUST BE OPERATED UPON PHYSICIANS CONCLUDE TODAY.

Turners, N. Y., Aug. 28.—While every effort was made not to tire Harriman he said greatly he is fatigued at the close of the physical examination. It was determined, although an operation is necessary, he is now too weak to withstand the shock, and it must delay a few days.

He underwent a rigid physical examination to determine the advisability of an immediate operation and noted surgeons have an operating table and oxygen tanks ready to begin when the operation is imperative. Three noted physicians besides Lytle participated in the examination. The latest arrival is Dr. George Willer Crile, of Cleveland, and abdominal specialist. The latest denial of the alleged oxygen tanks is that they contain ammonia gas for a private refrigerating plant.

Fast Submarine Boat.

Provincetown, Mass., Aug. 28.—The submarine torpedo boat Norwhal today broke the world's record for speed for submarines. It is the largest in the navy. It averaged 12¼ knots an hour. Three hundred miles in 25 hours on the surface. Will next make a sea-dive two hundred feet deep when the test will be concluded.

ARRESTED FOR NOT CUTTING WEEDS TODAY

Warrants will be issued against several property owners, according to Health Officer H. P. Sights. He has the names of several people who have failed to comply with the board of health's instructions to get busy with the scythe. The city has cleared mlch territory of weeds and it appears to the health department that property owners should at least clear their premises of the accumilation of disease breeders.

2,000 PEOPLE

COMING ON EXCURSION TOMORROW FROM ILLINOIS POINTS.

Paducah will be the mecca for 2,000 excursionists from Illinois and other points tomorrow. The big river excursion from Joppa, it is thought, will bring in over 2,000 people while many will be here from other points.

The Dick Fowler, Bettie Owen and George Cowling will bring the crowds from Joppa here, arriving between 10 a. m. and noon and returning late in the afternoon. Reduced rates have been made and Sunday merchants should have no reasons to complain. The C. & E. I. railroad will run an excursion into Joppa from Salem and other points. Thursday over 1,000 tickets had been reported sold there and the crowd will not be a slim one by any means.

Amusements at the park, street car rides and ball games will be attractions for the visitors, and tomorrow should rival today in numbers on the streets.

WATER RIGHTS PEOPLES.

Says the Conservation Congress Resolutions Which Are Adopted Today at Seattle Meeting.

Seattle, Aug. 28.—At the conservation congress today the Ballinger-Pinchot fight was reopened by Charles Hanford, the federal district judge, announcing he would introduce minority report of resolutions committee opposing Pinchot's politics regarding water power sites. Ballinger will arrive this afternoon to address the session.

The resolutions committee report adopted says: "We urge the states to enactment laws incorporating the principle that the waters belong to the people and deny the right of the government to grant a francise for water power purposes without just compensation."

CURTISS, THE AMERICAN, WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Romps Away From All Competitors in International Airship Races.

Bleriot, French Star, Second in Events.

LATHAM DID NOT START TODAY

Rheims, Aug. 28.—Curtiss won the international cup this afternoon, making an average speed of 47 miles an hour. Bleriot second, five seconds slower than Curtiss. Latham did not start, thejudge officially declaring Curtiss a winner. Bleriot was desperate after failing with a four-bladed propeller and on the advice of Santos Dumont he substituted a two-bladed one, which was still slower.

It is expected Curtiss' record will win not only the Coupe International worth $2,500, with cash of $5,000 but also the Prix De Vitesse, for speed, of $2,000 and the Tour De Piste, for the fastest single lap, of $1,300.

Curtiss, in the Coupe International covered the twenty kilometers, 12.42 miles, in fifteen minutes, 50 3-5 seconds this morning, which is the fastest yet. Bleriot made the trip several seconds slower. Curtiss made the fastest single circuit, 7:53 1-5 Bleriots best was 7:58 1-5.

The Lefebvre flight was a disappointment. He took nearly ten minutes for one circuit and did the second circuit in more than ten. It is believed it was due to nervousness as the Wright machine is considered the fastest. Weather today is ideal, with no wind.

Indian Hurricane Strikes Texas Coast Today.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 28.—Rising water caused by the West Indian hurricane have made many on the coast flee inland. Arkansas Pass and Tarpon and others, with a total population of one thousand are almost deserted because of fear of flood Buildings were swept away and several causalties resulted.

Insurance Men Elect.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 28. —The national insurance commissioners today elected J. A. Hartigan of St. Paul, Minn., president, and H. R. Cunningham, of Helena, Mont., secretary.

The convention passed a resolution instructing the special fraternal insurance committee to draw up a uniform bill for regulating fraternal societies in every state.

LaFollette on Cannon.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 28.—The leading editorial in LaFollette's weekly today concerns the Cannon attack. Discussing the "demotion of Fowler," it says: "The relations of Fowler and Cannon were a long time strained, because of an open breach during the 'emergency currency legislation' in the spring of 1909. The 'system' wanted more legislation in the interest of greater latitude and privileges to banks. Fowler did not believe in it. The Fowler currency bill was in the direction of needed legislation, but of course the 'system' was trying to put through the bill as soon as possible because the next house will possibly be Democratic."

WILL IT RAIN?

WEATHER MAN SAYS SO, ALSO PROMISES COOLER.

The weather man promises Paduhca and vicinity a rain. The weather man is one of those promising youths,—or old men, and sometimes does not deliver. However, a rain will be mighty acceptable, as every form of vegetation is suffering for lack of moisture. And, there is a suffering bit of humanity around here that would welcome the rain as the forerunner of a probably cooler spell. The weather man says: "Probably it will be cooler."

The highest temperature for today reached 97 degrees in the shade while the lowest was 78. The forecast for Paducah and vicinity is: Showers tonight or Sunday; cooler in west portion.

Illinois: Washington, Aug. 28.—Partly cloudy Saturday; cooler by Saturday night: Sunday fair and cooler; moderate southwest winds shifting to northwest.

Brookport for Elks.

One of the best games of the season is promised the fans Sunday afternoon when the Brookport team will line up against the Elks at League park. Hundreds of Illinois rooters will come on the excursion to root for Brookport, while the Paducah fans will turn out strong to support the Elks. The game will be called at 2:15 o'clock instead of 3:15 o'clock, in order that the excursionists may not miss the boat. McChesney will work in the box for the Elks while Rush will shoot the pills over the pan for Brookport. The Elks will line up: Albritton, c; McChesney, p; Lloyd, 1b; Groves, 2b; Goodman, ss; Hassman, 3b; Henneberger or Butler lf; Williams, cf; Sutton, rf.

Brookport has added four players for the game and will give the Elks a tussle for the victory.

The strong Murray baseball team wanted a game with the Indians for tomorrow afternoon, but as a game is on at the park the Calloway county lads will be taken care of Sunday week. Calloway county has a good team and recently took two games out of three from the Benton bunch.

LAST WARNING FOR TYRUS COBB

If He is Handy With His Spikes Any More He Must Quit Game for Good.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—One more attempt at spiking a fellow player may put a sudden quietus to the baseball career of Tyrus Cobb, star of the Detroit club. President Johnson last night declared himself against the tactics of the Georgia man, who is said to have maliciously driven his armored shoes against Third Baseman Baker's arm during the series just closed between the Philadelphia and Detroit teams.

All players look alike to Cobb when the latter gets on first base, and the opposing athlete who moves into the southerner's path is liable to meet almost any fate on the calendar. Base running is a specialty with Tyrus, and he will advance at any cost. More than one infielder in the American league has been cut down by the deadly spikes fitted to Cobb's shoes. The latest victim, Baker, also may be the last, according to President Johnson's edict.

"There's been altogether too much of this sort of game at Detroit," asserted Mr. Johnson, "and somebody is going to be made a shining example if I hear of another such affray. Cobb seems to be the chief offender, and a word of advice should go a long way. He must stop that sort of playing or he will have to quit the game. Steps will be taken next winter to overcome the possibility of spiking players. Just what action will be taken I am unable to state, but the chances are the players will be asked to wear shorter spikes than before."

Connie Mack has about decided to drop the case of Baker and Cobb. No official protest has reached President Ban Johnson. According to reports from Detroit, the pitchers of the Philadelphia club will assist in the work of taming Cobb. What sort of procedure will follow is a dark secret. Ball players have their own methods of cleaning up scores, and a few wild pitches may accidentally find lodgment against Cobb's head.

Ty Cobb Makes Denial.

Detroit, Aug. 28.—"Ty" Cobb, the star outfielder of the local American league team, positively denied that he or, to his knowledge, any other member of the Detroit team have attempted to spike players on opposing teams.

After reading the statement of President Ban Johnson that he, Cobb, must stop spiking players or quit the game, Cobb said:

"I have never attempted to spike another player, and I deny positively the charge. Of course, I run the bases hard and slide hard. But the base lines, by every rule of baseball, belong to the runner, and if a baseman chooses deliberately to get in the path and try to block the runner off, he does so at his own peril. I did not maliciously spike Third Baseman Baker, of the Philadelphia team. I slid into third base and he was on the line.

"The umpires whom President Johnson hires have seen me every time I have slid into a base and the baseman has been hurt. If I have murderously and deliberately tried to put out of the game any of these men, why have not the umpires reported me?"

Eagles and Pirates.

The Eagles and Pirates, two fast ball teams in the city will cross bats tomorrow afternoon on the shop diamond and a lively game is expected, as the teams play for a new ball and both teams are anxious to win. The battery for the Eagles will be: Judd, Nichols and Morgan. For Pirates: Williams or Griffin and Grogan. Everybody is invited to come out and watch the boys play.

Tigers and Concords.

The Tigers and Concord School teams will meet tomorrow morning and play a game of ball. Both teams are fast and the Tigers will be greatly strengthened by the presence of Pearson and Evans, two ex-Red Sox players.

AGREES TO LEAVE THE NEIGHBORHOOD.

Mysterious Woman Prefers to Bid Good-By to Trigg Rather Than Have Warrant Served.

Cadiz, Ky., Aug. 28.—A warrant has been issued by County Judge Bingham against Jean Ordway, the mysterious woman who has been staying in the neighborhood of Cerulean Springs since early last spring, but when Deputy Sheriff Lee Davis went out to arrest her, she agreed to leave the county at once if he would allow her, which he consented to, and she at once left in the direction of Caldwell county.

Jean, as she is familiarly called, made her appearance in this section of the state last winter, shortly after Christmas, in the northern part of Christian county, and remained there for some time, when she came to the Cerulean neighborhood, where she has been since. She appears to be about 40 years of age and weighs only about 90 pounds. She rides a small, shabby-looking pony and has four dogs with her, and has two or three pistols, one of which, at least, she generally has close at hand all the time. She seems to be well educated and is a good conversationalist, and has told several different tales as to her object in living in this way.

She sleeps outdoors, except in rainy, bad weather, when she goes into some one's barn or outhouse. She generally uses her pony or one of her dogs for a pillow, and when the weather was cold she would sleep between her pony and her dogs and covered with a blanket. She begs something to eat from the citizens around where she is, and likewise feeds her pony from the cornfields or pastures of the citizens. She talks very freely to most everyone until they would begin asking her something about herself and her object for living in this way, when she would give them to understand that that was her business and her secret. She claimed to be from Texas.

STOMACH TROUBLE CURED

Robt. A. Hays & Co.:—I had a stomach trouble and constipation for four years and could not find anything that would relieve me. I could not eat anything except oatmeal and rice, but what would hurt me, so I tried Hays' Specific and had not used it more than two weeks till I could eat anything I wanted without pain. I used one bottle and have never been bothered with my stomach since and it was two years ago. I believe it to be a good family medicine.

SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER

One Great Reason Why This Great Hair Beautifier and Color Restorer Produces Such Remarkable Results

Sulphur Is a Natural Element of the Hair.

When there is not a sufficient amount of sulphur in the hair, it loses its life, color and strength, turns gray, and falls out. There are many forms of sulphur, but only one kind that is suitable for treatment of the hair and scalp; and that is the kind used in preparing WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER.

We Have the Secret, and We Give You the Benefit Of It At An Exceedingly Low Price

BALDNESS CURED

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin, until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair, and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

PRESIDENT ARRESTED FOR MISAPPLYING FUNDS

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Elvert W. Shirk, president of the First National bank of Tipton, Ind., was arrested here today, charged with misapplying $24,252 of the bank's money. It is alleged in the complaint lodged with United States Commissioner Foote that Shirk obtained the money through drafts made payable to himself.

The alleged shortage is said to have occurred on July 23rd, the bank suspended for a few days, but resumed business, and the federal authorities began an investigation.

Shirk gave bond of $20,000 before United States Commissioner Foote and was released. Speaking of his arrest, Shirk said he held a note of the bank for $24,252, that Cashier Marker failed to give him credit for it and that he drew for the amount of this note on a Chicago bank. He adds that when the bank examiner some time ago discovered a supposed shortage in the bank's money, he contributed $50,000 to make it good "What would it profit me to take half that amount?" he asks—and declares that he can "easily prove the draft was only for the amount of the bank's indebtedness to me."

Daily Thought.

Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.—Bible.

Will you have a byplane or a monoplane?

Would you call Bleriot, Curtiss and the other airship stars wizzards or whizzards?

Will they call them joy rides or "flytimes," when the airships are stolen from the garage?

Alabama's new dry laws forbid liquor being kept any place but in the home. There is no place like home for your Alabaman henceforth.

MAN AS A GIANT OF ACHIEVEMENT.

It is the wrestling with obstacle and the overcoming of difficulties that have made man a giant of achievement.

If we could analyze a strong, vigorous character, we should find it made up largely of the conquering habit, the habit of overcoming, says Orison Sweet Marden in "Success Magazine."

On the other hand, if we should analyze a weak character we should find just the reverse—the habit of failure, the habit of letting things slide, of yielding instead of conquering—the lack of courage, of persistency, of grit.

There is the same difference between a self-made young man, who has fought his way up to his own loaf, and the pampered youth who has never been confronted by great responsibilities that would exercise his powers and call out his reserves, that there is between the stalwart oak which has struggled for its existence with a thousand storms, with all the extremities of the elements, and the hothouse plant which has never been allowed to feel a breath of frost or a rough wind.

Every bit of the oak's fiber has registered a victory, so that when its timber is called upon to wrestle with storms and the fury of the sea, it says, "I am no stranger to storms; I have met them many a time before. I feel within me stamina and fiber to resist the fury of any sea, because I have fought and overcome its equal a thousand times."

The hothouse plant succumbs to the first adverse wind.

THE PEOPLE TAKE TOO LITTLE INTEREST.

Samuel J. Roberts, editor of the Leader, of Lexington, in an address before the Commercial club of that city a few nights ago, took for his theme the interest of the general public in municipal affairs, and his views express so well those we hold that it is a pleasure to give space to some of his remarks. He says, in part:

"I do not think it entirely inappropriate to the occasion to briefly discuss the complaint that is often made that the people of Lexington take little interest in municipal affairs, seldom attend the meetings of the general council and board of education, and are generally indifferent to their material interests and to their civic duties and responsibilities

"This is unfortunately too true and I think it largely grows out of the feeling of many citizens that they have no voice and therefore little interest in the city government.

"I do not say this in a partisan spirit and do not pretend that this is the only city of which this can be truthfully said, or that the same conditions might not exist if the Republicans instead of the Democrats had been long in power.

"Lexington, and it is not alone by any means, needs a more representative local government, in which the masses of the people shall have a wider influence, and which shall be more responsive to enlightened public sentiment.

"Party organizations are necessary, the party leaders will always be looked to to give direction to political activities, but in all parties the citizens generally ought to have a larger part in the nomination of the men who are to represent them in public office.

"It is inevitable that party organizations and managers will exercise a powerful and more or less dominating influence in the selection of candidates for the higher offices, representing the general body politic rather than territorial sub-divisions; but members of the board of aldermen the board of councilmen and the board of education are peculiarly the local representatives of the people and their selection ought to be made as popular as possible under our political system.

"Members of the lower board of the council and of the school board are nominated from wards, and the spirit of the law, if not the letter, is that they should be primarily chosen by the wards, in order to assure distinct local representation; but under the frequently followed custom of selecting these candidates in conferences at political headquarters the purpose of the law is nullified, popular interest in public affairs is deadened, and the average citizen cannot tell you offhand what ward he lives in or who represents it in the general council or the board of education.

"If Republicans and Democrats would get closer to the people in making nominations for the municipal boards especially, we should see a deeper interest in their proceedings, a more ready official response to public sentiment; a more intelligent, appreciative citizenship, and a heartier co-operation in everything that makes for a better and a greater city."

TO OUR BROOKPORT FRIEND.

The article in the Brookport Eagle this week was prompted by jealousy and due, too, to a sad lack of information. It charges The Sun with doing all it can to harm Paducah, Brookport and Southern Illinois, when The Sun is like all other loyal, pulling-for-Paducah folk, doing all it can both for Paducah and its good neighbor, Brookport. The Sun long ago set up a fight for a bridge here, and equally as long ago came to the conclusion that such a fight was fruitless as men who know such things have always said that Metropolis would be the site, and should be. The Sun deferred to their judgment and wisdom, and accepted the situation as it appears. The Sun's information is that the bridge will be at Metropolis,—not right at the town but within a mile or so, and its article about the petition was published as a news item and not as an editorial expression of the paper or a wish, for if there was any prospects of Paducah and Brookport getting that bridge, The Sun would be found ready with any kind of contribution it might be expected to give, to further the scheme. The men behind The Sun, instead of being disloyal to Paducah or its interests can show by the records that they have probably expended more for the city's advancement than the total assessment of the town of Brookport. The editor of the Eagle is merely deficient in information.

If you can site us, neighbor, to any probability of a bridge for your good town and Paducah, The Sun stands ever ready to do anything within its domain to assist in what would be splendid work.

At last John Bull has scored one in the aviators' field. Farman, an English aviatist, hitherto unknown, has beat all records for long distance flying. Maybe the British can sleep of nights now. Ever since Bleriot sailed across the channel in the night, the timid English have gone to bed at night with the full expectation of finding their beloved country overrun with a foreign invasion brought over in airships. English papers have been criticising the lack of inventive genius in England and offering all kinds of inducements for some Englishman to get out an airship to compete with the French and American inventors.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN

A well known soda water dispenser was detected in the act of attempting to cut a piece of glass the other day with a pair of scissors. He held the glass under the water in the sink at the fountain and in vain did he try to clip away the glass until he broke it and came near cutting himself.

Being without a diamond or a glass cutter he was "strung" by a friend who told him the secret of glass cutting. After listening he procured a pane of glass and with a pair of scissors went to work. As a result both the scissors and glass were unfit for further use.

Dr. Horace Rivers is not a cronic kicker or knocker, but is just as agreeable as any doctor ought to be, but yesterday afternoon he got to kicking too much and came near beating "Maud" out of her job. As a result the physician is complaining of his hip yesterday. Yesterday afternoon in company with his little son Dr. Rivers went out to the lake at Wallace park for a swim. He swam and kicked, but when he was about to make a short turn in the water he kicked out too hard with his right foot and almost threw his hip out of joint. He is walking rather lame today.

Capt. J. S. Jackson, sr., the well known veteran, last Saturday presented to Capt. Robert E. Lee, of Memphis, Tenn., an old Springfield rifle that had been taken from the bed of the Tennessee river at Shiloh, where it had lain for 35 years. Capt. Lee was in Paducah last week looking after the repairs being made to the steamer Georgia Lee, of the Lee line of Memphis.

While here he paid a visit to Capt. Jackson, an old comrade, and Mr. Jackson made him a present of the gun which Capt. Lee will hold as a relic. The gun was dropped into the river at the Pittsburg landing near Shiloh by one of the federal soldiers. The federal troops charged over the bluff there at the time. The gun was recovered from the river a short time ago by a marine diver. It had been on display at the Jackson Foundry office and Capt. Jackson decided to make Capt. Lee a present of the relic. The weapon was charged and had been cocked and the bayonet was in place. It was rusty and in a dilapitated condition and will be preserved by the proud owner.

A HUMAN PIN CUSHION.

Sixteen of Them Extracted From a Girl's Arm.

New York, Aug. 28.—Miss Adelina Wyckoff, 18 years old, employed as a winder in Ashley & Bailey's silk mill at Paterson, N. J., has been found to be a human pin cushion. Within three days 16 pins have been taken from her right arm, and she can not tell how they got there.

Miss Wyckoff first complained about a year ago of a pain in her arm. Her mother found a slight abrasion, but thought nothing of it. Later she concluded the girl was suffering from rheumatism and applied home remedies, but the pain continued. Finally Dr. Flood called to examine the arm and extracted a headless pin, curved like a fishhook.

A few days ago, while the young woman sat in her home, she suffered intense pain in her arm. She found a pin protruding and with the aid of scissors she removed it. More pins made their appearance on the surface of the girl's arm.

Dr. Flood and the family of the girl are puzzled, and are of the belief that Miss Wyckoff must have swallowed a quantity of pins when she was young.

WOMEN KILL RACE SAY THE SCIENTISTS

COMPETING WITH MEN UNFITS FOR MOTHERHOOD.

"Equality" Cannot Be Considered in Comparison Between Complementary Factors.

REVOLT AGAINST OWN SEX

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 28.—Pushed to its extreme, the struggle of woman to be placed on an equality with man portends the extinction of mankind according to Professor H. E. Armstrong, who delivered an address before the British Association for the Advancement of Science today, in which he declared his faith in the progress of chemisty toward solving the problems of life and sex.

"The most disquieting signs of the times," he asserted, "is the effort of women to compete with men in every way, inasmuch as it lessens their fitness for motherhood and means racial decline."

"Those who presumably are the fittest," Professor Armstrong said, "are failing to contribute in proper proportion to the perpetuation of their race.

"The condition of affairs today affords a most striking exemplification of the slowness with which civilized nations are learning to appreciate the lessons of science.

Most Important Problem.

"No problem can compare in importance with that of the future of our race. Not only do we encourage deterioration at the lower end of the scale of intelligence; we are now through our system of education courting failure also at the upper end Herbert Spencer forcibly drew attention many years ago to the tendency which the development of individuality must have to depress fertility and to the evil effects of severe mental labor on women especially.

It has been stated that in the United States of America the higher education of girls has been proved to sterilize them. The most disquieting feature of the times is the revolt of women against their womanhood, and their claim to be on an 'equality' with man and to compete with men in every way. There should be no question of equality raised; when comparison is made between complimentary factors the question of equality does not and cannot come into consideration. It is clear that should the struggle arise—and it is to be feared that it is coming upon us—there can be but one issue: Women must fail and in failing must carry man to her destruction."

Professor Armstrong, who is president of the chemical section of the association, regretted the growing tendency toword premature announcement of scientific discoveries.

"We have been living in a time of sensational discovery," he said, "in a period when advertisement is favored and the desire for notoriet rampant Unhappily that caution which appeared to be regarded as a priceless prerogative of the scientific worker in the earlier part of the last century is no longer our recognized watchword."

SOME MEN NEVER SAW THAT PETITION

BROOKPORT EAGLE PLAYS THE SUN FOR ARTICLE.

And Asks For Names of Rivermen Who Had Not Seen the Petition.

The highly esteemed Brookport Eagle took pains yesterday to copy ver batim The Sun's article Wednesday afternoon relative to the alleged petition against the proposed railroad bridge across the Ohio at Metropolis, and played the paper in a true, neighborly manner. Then the flowery writer proceeded to blast forth in a feeble attempt to say that there was no excuse for such an article and says: "As a matter of fact we doubt, and we challenge them to produce his name, if ANY river man ever talked or dreamed one word of the whole article; because we know, by witness of our own eyes, that such a petition has been circulated, and that it has been signed by practically every Paducah master and pilot, etc."

The Sun will not only favor them with one name but several others, as follows: M. N. Mullen, of the towboat Harth S. A. Fowler, of the Paducah and Cairo packet company; Henry Baker, general manager of the Ayer & Lord Tie company of Paducah; A. W. Wright, commander of the Tennessee river packet Clyde; J. J. Young, pilot of the steamer George Cowling; Capt. Ed. Cowling, commander of the Cowling; Frank L. Brown, wharfmaster; D. M. Street and John Street of the Paducah wharfboat company; Capt. N. F. Roberts of the steamer Dick Fowler and Capt. Randall Ballowe, pilot on the Dick Fowler. And there are others.

The Sun has not denied the existence of such a petition but has questioned it and every riverman here whose name is given above, has denied any knowledge of the petition and if such a petition has ever been circulated in Paducah they claim they have failed to see it.

Capt. S. A. Fowler said this morning he did not know anything about the petition nor did anyone else. Capt. M. N. Mullen said he had not seen anything of it or heard of it before the morning paper said it had been gotten up and signed by nearly every riverman here. Capt. Henry Baker, manager of the Ayer & Lord Tie company, said he had not heard or seen or signed any sort of a petition. Capt. J. J. Young denies any knowledge of the petition and has not seen it. Capt. Ed. Cowling said he had not heard of it before and did not know of any riverman at Metropolis or Brookport who had seen it. Wharfmaster Frank Brown, now in command of the steamer Kentucky, said if such a petition had been gotten up and circulated he would have seen it or heard of it at any rate. D. M. Street and John Street only heard of the petition through the morning paper and have not laid their eyes on it.

Capt. Randall Ballowe, who is piloting the Dick Fowler, said he had not heard of the petition and if any had been issued he supposed he would have been called upon to sign his name. Capt. N. F. Roberts, of the Dick Fowler, has failed to see or sign any such petition.

In fact several rivermen said this morning they would not sign it if it was presented. If a petition of this kind was ever brought here the signers must be scattered.

If the Brokport Eagle would like to know who said it was "monkey wrench" talk we can say that it came from the lips of Capt. Wright and he doesn't deny it. What use would rivermen have in denying seeing or signing a petition if they really had? If the Brookport Eagle can reproduce the petition for the benefit of a majority of rivermen in Paducah they would no doubt take time to read it, and sign it, if they thought it would be fruitful, for they are as anxious to have a bridge here as any Brookport people are.

INNOVATION ON I. C. ROAD.

Individual Drinking Cups Will Be Placed on All Coaches.

Arrangements are being made by the management of the Illinois Central railroad to place individual drinking cup in all coaches, parlor and cars of every description of the entire system. The cups will be either of paper or pariffin. Both kinds will be used for a while, and whichever the public appears to desire will be retained. The cups will be in penny slot machines, which will be placed beside the water coolers at the end of the cars. These will not displace the glasses or free cups, but will be in addition for those who want them.

For some time officers of the road have been figuring on schemes that would insure better sanitary conditions surrounding drinking cups. This is one of several innovations made by this company during the past few months in the improvement in passenger service. Recently an order was given on this road that meals must not be called in sleeping cars or coaches. This has resulted in better service in dining cars and has eliminated, largely, crowding.

Vital Strength

comes from proper food. If you want to be ready for opportuniies, food that is quickly absorbed by the blood and stored up in the brain, nerves and muscles as vital energy, must be made a part of your regular routine.

Suppose you try GRAPE-NUTS with cream for breakfast. Eat slowly and note the comfortable feeling of vitality that "stays with you" till noon.

CAUSE OF FALLING HAIR.

Dandruff, Which is a Germ Disease—Kill the Germ.

Falling hair is caused by dandruff, which is a germ disease. The germ in burrowing into the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out, digs up the cuticule in little scales, called dandruff or scurf. You can't stop the falling hair without curing the dandruff, and you can't cure the dandruff without killing the dandruff germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ. Herpicide is also a delightful hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. S.S.S. MAKES A LASTING CURE

Not only its proven ability to cure, but its absolute safety as a remedy, has made S. S. S. the most extensively used of all medicines in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison. Unlike the strong mineral mixtures, which temporarily remove the outward symptoms and shut the disease up in the system, there to carry on its destructive work on the delicate and vital organs, S. S. S. strikes directly at the root, and by purifying the blood of every trace of the virus, completely and permanently cures the trouble. S. S. S. is Nature's blood purifier, harmless in its action and certain in its good results. It is made from a combination of roots and herbs, each of which has a definite and specific action in purifying the blood. Years were spent in selecting and proportioning the different ingredients, but when S. S. S. was perfected it soon demonstrated its superiority over all other blood medicines, and now, after 40 years, it is still the one and only certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. While driving out the poison from the circulation S. S. S. builds up and strengthens the system by its fine vegetable tonic effects. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison S. S. S. is your most certain reliance, and because of its freedom from mercury, potash or any other mineral, it is absolutely safe for every one. Number of New Reforms Sought—Support to Movement Pledged By Many.

New York, Aug. 27.—The simplified spelling board, which started its spelling reform three years ago with a list of 300 words, now has published a list containing 3,261 words that the board thinks need reforming The officers of the board are at work compiling a "manual of simplified spelling," dealing with 25,000 words

The latest list contains in addition to the former list of words having -ea- pronounced -e-, and to simplified as in hed, helth, spred, etc., the preterits and participles ending in -ed pronounced -d, and so simplified as in armd, burnd, fild, livd, etc.; words ending in -ice, pronounce -is, and so simplified as in coppis, cornic, vrecis justis, etc.; words ending in -ve, pronounced -v, and so simplified when preceded by l or r, as in delv, solv carv, and garv.

Dr. Scott says there are 259 periodicals in forty-one states and territories which have taken up the spelling reform to some extent. In the superintendents and college professors who have signed the agreement to use the shorter forms of spelling every large university and college is represented.

The Illinois State Normal university of Normal uses the full list of simplified spellings in its catalogues and other publications. Other normal schools in Colorado, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin use the simplified spelling to a greater or less degree.

A Promise to Pay

Wolld you accept a stranger's note? No. Then why accept from a stranger any other promise to pay? A Fire insurance policy is such a promise. Ought you to accept it without knowing all about the Company? Your usual business confidence is based on knowledge. Why make an exception in that part of your business which deals with insurance? A name is worth nothing on any kind of a promise to pay unless it is backed by character and resources.

We favor insurance knowledge, particularly about our companies. Their promises to pay have never gone to protest. Their obligations to its policy holders are backed with such a good reputation and such ample financial resources that the more you know about them the more you will want protection by their policies.

PROUD OF FORTY YEARS' EXISTENCE

PROHIBITIONISTS WILL CELEBRATE IN SEPTEMBER.

Five Men Who Have Run for President to Attend—Plans for Temperance Rally.

NOTED SPEAKERS TO ATTEND

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Prohibitionists from all quarters of the country will celebrate in Chicago September 24 the fortieth anniversary of the founding of their party. Announcement was made at national headquarters that extensive preparations are being made for the occasion and that fully 20,000 blue ribbonists from outside are expected to attend and to march next day in the temperance parade in which 100,000 persons are expected to be in line.

The party was organized in Chicago September 1, 1869, and the celebration has been put back three weeks on account of the demonstration the temperance forces have arranged for September 25. Old-timers who were present when the party was born have written that they will be on hand, among them John Russell, of New Haven, Mich., who was temporary chairman of the convention at which the party had its birth, and Samuel Dickie, of Albion, Mich., who was among those present.

On the program will be five men who have run for president on the prohibition ticket and three who have run for vice-president. In ex-presidential candidates the party outnumbers the two big parties, a fact to which National Chairman Charles R. Jones points with pride. The five surviving presidential candidates who will be present and the years in which they ran for the white house are:

John P. St. John, Olathe, Kan.—1884.

Joshua Levering, Baltimore, Md.—1896.

John G. Wooley, Honolulu—1900.

Silas C. Swallow, Harrisburg, Pa.—1904.

Eugene W. Chafin, Chicago—1908

The surviving vice presidential candidates of former years who will be present are James B. Cranfill, Texas, 1892; George W. Carroll, Beaumont, Texas, 1904, and Aaron S. Watkins, Ada, O., 1908.

Party is Long Lived.

National Chairman Jones, who has just returned from London where he attended the international convention of prohibitionists, said:

"The history of political parties in the United States shows the longevity of the Prohibition party. Since the republic was founded over 30 parties have been started. Only three have lived to be 40 years old and more. They are the Prohibition, the Republican and the Democratic parties. We are 40 years old next month, and we are only 14 years younger that the Republican party, which shows the strength of the ideas and principles for which our party stands. In the four decades over 2,000,000 different men have voted for Prohibition candidates. We have a strength of 250,000 supporters all the time.

"Many of the principles which we were the first to advocate have since been taken up by other parties. The Prohibition party was the first to declare for the income tax. In 1872 our platform declared for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. Of late years many state legislatures have taken that up and acted favorably. In 1872, also, our platform declared for woman suffrage."

U. S. DISPENSATORY

Describes the Principal Ingredients of Pe-ru-na.

Are we claiming too much for Peruna when we claim it to be an effective remedy for chronic catarrh? Have we abundant proof that Peruna is in reality such a catarrh remedy? Let us see what the United States Dispensatory says of the principal ingredients of Peruna.

Take, for instance, the ingredient hydrastis canadensis, or golden seal. The United States Dispensatory says of this herbal remedy, that it is largely employed in the treatment of depraved mucous membranes, chronic rhinitis (nasal catarrh), atonic dyspepsia (catarrh of the stomach), chronic intestinal catarrh, catarrhal jaundice (catarrh of the liver), and in diseased mucous membranes of the pelvic organs. It is also recommended for the treatment of various forms of diseases peculiar to women.

Another ingredient of Peruna, corydalis formosa, is classed in the United States Dispensatory as a tonic. Is used as a treatment for chronic constitutional diseases and scrofula.

Cedron seeds is another ingredient of Peruna, an excellent drug that has been very largely overlooked by the medical profession for the past fifty years. The seeds are to be found in very few drug stores. The United States Dispensatory says of the action of cedron that it is used as a bitter tonic and in the treatment of dysentery, and in intermittent diseases as a substitute for quinine.

These are not all of the medicinal ingredients Peruna contains. Suffice it to say that it is a compound of herbal remedies, each one of which has, from time to time, been recommended by physicians of all schools, for different catarrhal conditions.

If you want to know what the people say send to us for a free book of testimonials of what the people think of Peruna as a catarrh remedy. After all has been said, the best evidence for or against any remedy is the testimony of those who have tried it.

TEN MEN DEAD AS RESULT OF EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE

Key West, Fla., Aug. 28.—Nine workmen met instant death and a tenth died while being brought to the hospital here as the result of a dynamite explosion yesterday. The men were hurled high into the air and the bodies of the dead were almost beyond recognition, the arms and legs being torn off, while the faces of the others were masses of flesh. When the explosion occurred the workmen were standing in the water four feet deep and directly beneath them was 700 pounds of dynamite, ready for the blast when the men should stop work for dinner.

According to one of the wounded one of those nine to meet instant death threw a lighted cigarette to one side, not noticing that it fell into the box containing the fuses which were connected with the heavy charges of explosives beneath them A few seconds and men, water, mud and tons of dirt were thrown from seventy to ninety feet in the air.

Of course speculating or dealing in futures sounds more refined than gambling, but a man will lose just as much.

Anty Drudge Cures a Sick Headache.

Dr. Fudge—"Does Mrs. Junebride live here?"

Anty Drudge—"No—next door. I found her out in the back kitchen crying over her wash. The poor dear isn't used to such hard work, and she has a sick headache from it. I took the wash from her and quickly finished it with Fels-Naptha. She won't need you again on that score."

Dr. Fudge—"Well, really, Anty Drudge, washday is responsible for more ills than most people imagine. I am glad you have taken Mrs. Junebride under your wing. Fels-Naptha is the ounce of prevention that is worth my pound of cure."

Delicate summer curtains, draperies, tapestries, laces, women's fine raiment—things that would be ruined by washing in the old-fashioned way—can be cleaned at home with Fels-Naptha as well as an expert cleaner could do it.

Fels-Naptha contains no injurious chemicals; nothing that could harm the most delicate fabric. Sets colors instead of making them run as most soaps do.

With Fels-Naptha, use only cold or lukewarm water—never hot. That saves the fabric. Hot water would soften it and cause fraying.

Fels-Naptha dissolves the dirt; you don't have to rub it loose as with ordinary soap.

More than a million women do their washing with Fels-Naptha. They have found out that Fels-Naptha is the best and easiest way.

Follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

PROVE ALERTNESS OF RAIL MEN

PENNSYLVANIA EMPLOYES MAKE RECORD OF 99.6 PER CENT.

More Than 156,000 Experiments Made by Road in First Six Months of Year.

PERFECT RECORD IN THE EAST

More than 156,000 efficiency tests were made by the Pennsylvania railroad in the first six months of this year and practically a perfect record was made by the employes. These figures are shown in a report issued yesterday by the railroad.

The average number of tests made each day was 862, and of the total fotal for the six months, 99.6 per cent were perfect. In the 4 per cent of failures are included the cases where engine-men passed signals by a few feet before stopping their trains, and similar cases, which, though technical violations, were not such as would make possible an accident to a train.

Efficiency, or surprise tests, are conducted by officials of the Pennsylvania railroad, who, at unusual times and places, set signals at caution or danger, extinguished signal lights, display fusees, or place torpedoes on the track, with a view to keeping enginemen constantly on the alert for any and all signals. In conducting surprise tests, the officials sometimes extinguish signal lamps, and while enginemen may stop at the signal, failure to report the dark lamp at the next station lays them liable to suspension. Failure to observe any of the rules regarding the operation of trains is disciplined.

The tests made in the first six months of this year were divided into four classes in which the following records were made by the men: Block signal rules, 24,292 tests, of which 99.6 per cent showed perfect observance on the part of employes; rules governing flagmen, and the use of fusees, torpedoes, and other signals, 23,042 tests, with 99.5 per cent perfect; trains ahead of schedule time, 53,503 tests, with 99.7 per cent perfect; signalmen relieving each other, 99.9 per cent perfect, out of 56,112 tests.

The New York division, the line between New York and Philadelphia, showed a perfect record in all signal tests, as did the Cresson and the Central divisions. On the Sunbury and Shamokin divisions a total of 8,732 signal rule tests were made and in only 9 cases was the observance imperfect. Nine out of the twenty-six divisions reported perfect observance of all block signal rules; 5 were perfect in other signals, 21 in trainsr unning ahead of schedule time, and 10 in signalmen relieving each other.

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. For sale and recommended by W. J. Gilbert. d

VOTES FOR WOMEN.

Are to Be Demanded at the Point of Bayonets and Guns, Says a Suffragette.

New York, Aug. 28.—Votes for women are to be demanded at the point of the bayonet and muzzle of guns, if Mrs. Julia Goldzier of Bayonne has her way. "No great cause was ever won without bloodshed," said Mrs. Goldzier. "If the legislature will not grant us the right to vote, the women should arm themselves and march to the capitol and surround the building when the legislators are in session, and then give them the alternative of granting women the right of suffrage or being shot down. I guess they would choose the easier course, then. If not, then let them suffer the consequences, and the world would see then that we really meant business.

"Being a Christian Scientist, I do not, as a general rule, believe in the force of arms, but this is an extraordinary case and demands extraordinary action. We are going to vote, no matter how. There are several hundred women whom I am ready to lead and we will get what we are after, or there'll be trouble."

BIG BIRD A GAME FIGHTER

Bravely Battles With Three Men Till Neck Is Broken.

Burlington, N. J., Aug. 28.—In a terriffic battle with an immense blue heron three men came off victorious, but not until the big bird had, with its powerful wings and vicious beak, tthrice driven off the trio. But for the fact that a heavy steel trap into which the bird had stepped while seeking a dinner in the ponds of the Keandak goldfish hatchery hampered its movements, injuries far more serious than torn clothes and scratches would have been meted out to its conquerors.

To go not far enough is to fail altogether; to go too far—that is a matter of opinion.

AS EXCITING AS A HORSE RACE

SPECTATORS THRILLED BY THE SPEED OF AIRSHIPS.

Henry Farman Breaks the Record for Long Distance Flying, Traveling 118 Miles.

THE BIG CUP RACE TODAY

Bethany Aviation field, Rheims Aug. 28.—Flying in a biplane here Henry Farman beat the world's record of 95.88 miles made by Herbert Lathaam. Farman stopped at the conclusion of his nineteenth lap. This gave him a total distance of 190 kilometers, not counting the curves in his flight, or 118.06 miles.

The committee ceased recording Farman's rounds at 7:30 o'clock. He then had covered 180 kilometers, or 111.78 miles, in 3 hours, 4 minutes 56 2-5 seconds.

Two dirigible balloons, the Zodiac and the Colonel Renard, had a narrow escape from collision while evoluting at a great height in front of the tribune. They passed within 40 feet of each other, and a catastrophe was avoided only by the skillful manipulation of Count de la Vaulx, the pilot of the Zodiac. At the time of the incident the aeroplanes were sweeping around the course beneath them.

Bennett Up Today.

Paulhan, with a tank carrying 90 litres of gasoline, enough to last him five hours, went up shortly before 11 o'clock, but his oil feeder was not working well and he alighted for repairs after having traveled a couple of miles.

The contest for the international cup, known otherwise as the Gordon Bennett trophy, to go to the aviator who covers two laps of 12.42 miles in the shortest time, is regarded as the principal event of aviation week Both the Wright and the English machines are considered too slow to stand any chance, and the contest consequently lies between Bleriot Curtiss and Latham. Bleriot's big machine was fitted up with new wings and propellers, and the pilot announced that he would try out his areoplane this afternoon.

Paulhan met a heavy beam wind trying to rise, and smashed his left blades. Finding that he could not repair them today, he protested that De la Grange had fouled him, and asked postponement of the Prix de la Champagne finals until tomorrow Then Farman, Latham and Sommer rose, and a remarkable race followed

Like a Horse Race.

Farman gradually overhauled Commer, while Latham, flying 100 feet higher than the leaders, approached them rapidly. As Farman neared Sommer, who was on the same level he evidently caught the wind of the leader's motor, for his aeroplane dropped and almost touched the ground. Then soaring wide, and with Latham, in his monoplane, high above the two bi-planes, the three machines rounded the turn into the stretch in front of the tribunes together.

It was like a horse race, and a thrill of excitement went through the spectators. Latham moved rapidly to the frond anr ctossed the line first while Farman finished second and Sommer was a bad third. He was thrown out of his course by the wind from the propellers of the other machines. The crowd broke into a frenzy of enthusiasm at this remarkable finish.

RURALES GO IN BATTLE ARRAY

The Troops Are Equipped as For An Extensive Campaign.

Monterey, Mex., Aug. 28.—A detachment of 75 rurales, armed and equipped for a long stay, left this morning about 4 o'clock for Monclova, Coahuila.

The Monclova district has been unquiet for some time and rumors of unrest have reached here from time to time. The movement of the rurales was sudden, as the orders were issued at 3 o'clock in the morning for the detachment to move at once. This would indicate that the authorities fear that some trouble has taken place or is about to occur.

At the military headquarters of the third military zone it was stated that no special significance was attached to the movement, but that it was in the nature of a precautionary measure.

The sending of the rurales to Monclova has created considerable comment in this city, but all are at a loss to explain the movement of the troops. Many rumors are current here tonight, and it is freely stated that Gen. Reyes has resigned his post as governor of Nuevo Leon, that the resignation is now in the hands of Gen. Trevino, but that it cannot be acted upon until the state legislature meets on the 14th of September, unless a special session of the legislature should be called.

From an authoritative source it was learned that a man very close to Gen. Reyes has been sent to Galenea to endeavor to secure the governor's resignation and that his mission has been successful. No confirmation of the rumor could be obtained tonight, but it is generally credited here.

TARIFF BATTLE SHAM, W. J. BRYAN BELIEVES.

No Real Victory Can Be Won, He Thinks, Until Concerted Fight Is Made Upon Principle of Protection.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 28.—Describing the tariff fight as a sham battle and declaring that in the struggle to come the principle of protection must be attacked, W. J. Bryan will say in the forthcoming issue of his Commoner:

"The time is pact for sham battles on the tariff question. The only victory we have won on the tariff in recent years was the victory of 1892 when we attacked the principle of protection. No real fight can be made until a distinct line is drawn between the opposing forces.

"The progressive Republicans cannot make a successful fight against the Aldrich element because both factions in the Republican party claim to be protectionists. It is only a question of degree, with no way of defining the issue. So, with those Democrats who shy at 'a tariff for revenue only.' They cannot stay their position without borrowing Republican phraseology. Whenever a Democrat begins to defend protection, he throws away his arms and joins the ranks of the non-combatant.

"Taxation should be for revenue only. The taxation of the many for the benefit of the few is robbery under the form of law, whether it is invoked to aid the manufacturers of the east or the producers of raw material in the west and south.

"Aside from the objections made to the principle of protection, it must be remembered that comparatively few can be benefited by a protective tariff. A protective tariff that would distribute its benefit among all would be of no benefit to any one. To benefit those for whom it is made a protective tariff must hurt the rest of the people.

"The Democratic party must take the part of the whole people and challenge the Republicans, standpatters and progressives alike to defend the protective principle. Tariff reform by the friends of the tariff is impossible; tariff reform by the enemies of high tariff is not only reasonable but necessary.

"Now for a real fight between the taxpayers and the tax eaters."

SERIOUS RACE RIOT BARELY AVERTED IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 28.—Swinging their drawn swords above the heads of the belligerents and declaring that unless the trouble ceased, they would use them, a company of negro Knights of Pythias prevented what for a time promised to be a serious race riot, during a parade of the supreme lodge of negro Knights of Pythias here today.

The trouble began when W. S. Jarboe, a laundryman, accompanied by his wife, drove through the parade of 5,000 negro knights. Several negroes not in the line of march sezied the bridle of the horse. Mrs. Jarboe seized the whip and struck at the men. Instantly a hundred excited negroes crowded about the wagon. One wrested the whip from the woman, striking her a number of times and inflicting painful bruises. Many white men rushed to the aid of the laundryman. A riot call was sent to police headquarters, but before the police arrived, the armed knights had restored order.

NEW VICTORY FOR WIRELESS

ALL BUT FIVE ABOARD STEAMER OHIO ARE SAVED.

Sends Final Message That Captain and Crew Were Leaving on Last Boat and Bade Farewell.

BUT OPERATOR LOSES LIFE

New York, Aug. 28.—The United Wireless company, one of whose operators, G. E. Eccles, of Winnipeg, perished in the sinking of the steamship Ohio off the Alaskan coast, in which five lives were lost, received an account of the disaster from Operator Booth at Ketchikan, Alaska, later. Booth sent the following dispatch to headquarters of the company here:

"About 1 a. m. I was sitting with my receivers clasped to my ears, having just finished working with Operator Eccles on board the Ohio, when I was startled by hearing him call, 'C. Q. D.! C. Q. D!' I immediately answered, and he sent the following message: 'Ohio struck a rock, steamer sinking; send aid immediately or everybody will be lost.'

"The steamships Humboldt and Rupert, of the McKenzie Brothers Steamship company, happened to be near at the time and they both called the Ohio, asking for her latitude. Eccles gave it immediately and the Rupert flashed back that they would change their course and stand by the Ohio as soon as possible.

"In tthe meantime Eccles sent another message, saying, 'Ohio sinking fast, cannot hold out. Passengers being taken off in small boats. Captain and crew will stick to the last.'

"The Humboldt and Rupert both replied that they were headed for the Ohio and would pick the passengers up. Then came the final message from the stricken vessel. It was never finshed:

" 'Passengers all off and adrift in small boats,' it said; 'captain and crew going off in the last boat, waiting for me now. Good-by.'

"I was unable to get him again," concludes Booth, "and I knew he had gone down with his ship."

OLLIE JAMES

Will Deliver One of the Principal Speeches at Income Tax Organization Meeting.

New York, Aug. 28.—The promoters of the meeting to be held at Albany, September 4, to further the adoption of a federal income tax law are endeavoring to make it of national significance. The committee in charge announced that while William J. Bryan will not attend, he will send a letter and suggest a form of permanent organization and will be represented by Congressman Ollie James of Kentucky, who will make one of the principal speeches.

It was said today that Mr. Bryan would suggest that the organization be called the Income Tax League of the State of New York, and that the movement be kept as non-partisan as possible. Augustus Thomas, the playwright, probably will be elected president. The committee expects that Senator Thomas Gore, of Oklahoma, will be present. William R. Hearst has also signified his purpose to attend.

A near-thoughtless man is one who thinks only of himself.

ARRESTS CITY OFFICIALS.

Charge of Liberating a County Prisoner From Jail.

Fulton, Ky., Aug. 28.—City Councilman James R. Milner and City Engineer Johnson were arrested today upon the charge of illegally liberating a county prisoner from the city jail. They waived their trial and were held to await the action of the circuit court, both giving bond in the sum of $200.

Deputy Sheriff L. C. Roberson, who made the arrests, also had a warrant for Chief of Police W. Y. Eaker, but failed to serve the writ, as Eaker was absent from the city.

Frater Gleason, self-confessed burglar, was liberated from the city jail Tuesday night. When recaptured by Officer Carter, the negro told Carter that Milner, Johnson and Eaker turned him out.

Milner admitted the charge, but Johnson and Eaker denied having any part in the matter.

Gleason was bound over today to circuit court and will be sent to the county jail unless he can give bond. The case is the sensation of the hour.

STRANDED LAD

WAS GIVEN TICKET TO HIS Home Today.

Twelve-Year-Old Youngster Starts to Walk to Nortonville to See Sick Parent.

With tears streaming down his cheeks, Robert Albin, 12 years old was picked up near the Union station this morning by Patrolman Casper Jones. The lad eagerly told a sad story to the policeman, who helped the little fellow out of his trouble Albin lives at Nortonville and last week he came to Paducah to get work and help the family out. He was employed in a restaurant and received 25 cents a day. The boy was a hard worker, and was doing well until this morning when he received word that his father was seriously ill at Nortonville.

Albin told the restaurant keeper the news and said he must return home until his father recovered, and asked for his money. According to the boy the proprietor refused to pay him, saying the money was due him for boarding the boy. Without a cent in his pockets Albin was not to be outdone, and started walking home He was walking along the track south of the Union station when Patrolman Jones heard his sobs, and made inquiry into his troubles. The lad was sent to the city hall, where he was given a ticket to Nortonville, and with tears of joy this time rolling down his face the youngster boarded a train that would carry him home in a few hours.

GEN. GILMAN DEAD.

Credited With Having Ordered First Rifle Shot Fired in Civil War.

New York, Aug. 28.—Gen. Jeremiah H. Gilman, U. S. A., retired, who was credited with having ordered the first rifle shot fired in the Civil war, is dead at the Oriental hotel, Manhattan Beach, after an illness of two months. He was 79 years old.

General Gilman was graduated from West Point in 1856. On the outbreak of the Civil war Lieutenant Gilman, with Lieutenant Slemmer and 70 soldiers belonging to Company G, of the First United States artillery, held Fort Pickens, which was located on an island and commanded the entrance to the harbor of Pensacola, Fla. It is asserted that the first rifle shot in the war was fired when seven Confederate soldiers tried to pass the pickets at night and failed.

Later Fort Sumter fell, but Fort Pickens held out, although it was stormed by 5,000 Confederates.

COMPLIMENTS OUR HYDRANT WATER

KENTUCKY EXPERIMENTAL STATION MAKES ANALYSIS.

Well Water, However, Is Unfit for Drinking and Health Board Will Condemn All Wells.

BOARD OF HEALTH WILL ACT

The hydrant water in Paducah is as good as you can find anywhere, and Paducahans can rest assured that the water they drink every day is healthful and well filtered. The well water is unfit for use.

The pleasing news has come to City Health Officer H. P. Sights in a letter from Alfred M. Peter, of the Kentucky Agricultural Experimental station of State University at Lexington, Ky. Recently Dr. Sights sent to the labratory six specimens of drinking water used in this city. Five were from wells in different parts of the city and the sixth was hydrant water. A test was made of each and Mr. Peter pronounces the well water bad and unfit for drinking purposes while he highly compliments the hydrant water which stood every test given.

Dr. Sights said this morning that the board of health would take immediate steps to condemn all wells The city council has adopted an ordinance requiring all wells to be filled up in the portion of the city where the water mains extend. Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane, of Kalamazoo Michigan, who was in the city several months ago in her tour through the state, highly complimented the pure water which the Paducah people have the benefit of. Paducah is said to have the best water supply of any city its size anywhere.

Dr. Sights said this morning bacteriological tests would be made soon.

NO CHOLERA ON ANDYK.

Steamer Coming to U. S. Given Clean Bill of Health.

Washington, Aug. 28.—A dispatch received by Surgeon Genearl Wyman, of the public health and marine hospital service, from the American consul at Rotterdam puts a different light on the cholera situation and greatly relieves the feeling of apprehension felt by the government's health officials.

In his advices the consul states that the Andyk was the last steamer to leave Rotterdam for America before the cholera cases were reported, and he did not mean by his former dispatch to convey the idea that the disease had broken out aboard that vessel.

The state department has received a telegram from Minister Beaupre, at The Hague, stating in effect that he had been informed by the minister of foreign affairs of the Netherlands that two cases of Asiatic cholera in Rotterdam had been reported to him; that all preventive measures had been taken, and that constant examinations of the water supply showed no contamination.

WILL EXHUME SUTTON'S BODY.

Request of Mother of Dead Lieutenant Will Be Granted.

Washington, Aug. 28.—In the matter of application of Mrs. Sutton for permission to exhume the body of her son, Lieut. James N. Sutton, now buried in Arlington National cemetery, it can now be stated as a fact that the only cause for the delay in giving Mrs. Sutton the necessary authority is that her request has been referred to the secretary of war for his decision as to the proposed autopsy. There is no question, it is said, that the permission asked will be granted.

The robbers have not been apprehended. The Prince and Princess de Sagan went to Rheims to witness the aeroplane flights.

NEW JOB FOR LAURIER.

Canadian Premier Will Be Governor of South Africa.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 28.—A letter from a prominent politician in England, just received here, states that the British government is to offer Sir Wilifred Laurier the position of first governor general of South Africa, as a tribute to his reconciliation of races in Canada.

Sir Wilifred, of course, refuses to discuss the report, and in government circles it is regarded as most unlikely he would accept even if the offer were made.

BIG IMPROVEMENT

IN ALL LINES OF BUSINESS IS NOTED BY DUN.

Striking Proof of Stronger and Better Conditions is Shown By Fewer Number of Failures.

New York, Aug. 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review says:

From the principal cities come such reports as "large fall purchases," "active demand," "sales exceeding best previous years," "large number of visiting buyers" and "outlook for very active fall trade."

A striking proof of stronger business conditions is furnished by the large reduced total of business defaults. The improvement in the iron and steel trade is steadily maintained with a heavy production of pig iron, a practically full movement of finished products and notably heavy buying by the railroads.

The only department of this industry where there is room for considerable business is that of steel rails, but it is anticipated that next year's production will be much heavier than this year.

Seasonable activity continues in the wholesale dry goods market, special sales of various kinds attracting many buyers. Purchases by retailers still indicate caution regarding future needs, even in cases where higher prices seem certain. The current movement, however, is very steady. The imminence of the September report on raw cotton is a factor in the holding back of future orders, as the price of the raw material is still above the level of manufactured merchandise and mills hesitate to accept orders tendered at values based on cotton under 12 cents. The openings of fancy dress goods lines for spring have not been attended with the active demand noted when the staple mills priced their lines for the season. Many mills, however, are still working on old orders and there are many substantial orders booked for spring delivery on staple fabrics. Men's wear lines are moderately quiet, with prices firmly maintained. Linens rule strong. Fancy fall knit wear is in good demand, but heavy underwear is still slow. Staple domestic hosiery has been ordered well on seamless goods and the full fashioned mills are making slow progress on the spring trade. Business in footwear is slow and so far as fresh contracts are concerned trade is nearly at a standstill.

Improvement in demand for hides continues and sales for both domestic and foreign hides are larger.

Prices on leather are easy as a rule, but some varieties are steady. Trade is spasmodic, but an improvement is confidently looked for before long.

Work of replacing the old cylinder timbers with new ones was started yesterday and other improvements are to be made.

A barge of coal belonging to the West Kentucky Coal company, which sank near the Illinois Central railroad incline several months ago, was dynamited this morning and cleared away. The barge has been impeding the landing of the transfer boat. Both barge and coal will be a loss to the coal company.

Rivermen are of the opinion that the river has set in for a fall and that a very low stage will be reached. The river for two days has been receding at the rate of one foot every 24 hours.

Capt. Frank L. Brown, wharfmaster, will be in command of the Kentucky when she leaves for the Tennessee river this evening. Captain Hale will probably be able to take charge of his boat in a few weeks, but at present is unable to bear much weight on his foot.

FIFTH MURDER

CRIME WAVE SWEEPING HENDERSON ADDS ANOTHER.

Recent Race Meeting Leads to Trouble Among Promoters, Which Results in Murder.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 28.—The fifth murder in the carnival of crime which has been sweeping over Henderson county occurred here last night, when William Ball shot and instantly killed Ed. Duke, the official starter for the local race track. Ball emptied his pistol at Duke, four bullets taking effect in his body, the last three of them being pumped into his prostrate form as it lay huddled in the street.

The murder grew out of the racing muddle here. A day or so ago the efforts of William Raab, a racing promoter of Chicago, to establish a track meeting here under the name of the Albuquerque Racing association, came to grief, and Raab, with several of his associates, were arrested for promoting racing without the consent of the state racing commission. Three or four days previous Raab was sued by the musicians he had employed at the track, and in defending the suit he put up a cash bond of $1,000. This money was attached a short while afterward, and it was alleged that $1,000 of the association money together with J. G. Russel, secretary of the association, has disappeared.

The cause of the murder is alleged to have been a statement on the part of Duke that Ball was the direct cause of the warrants being issued for and served upon the officers who are to answer the criminal charge. It seems that the two were talking, first in a moderate tone of voice, about the troubles which upset the racing association, and it is supposed that Duke's accusation was made heatedly. Ball thereupon became angered, and drawing his pistol, fired with fatal effect.

Duke was a native of Los Angeles, Cal., and is supposed to have a wife and possibly other relatives in Denver. He was not known very well here.

Ball is a well-known horseman and has raced horses over most of the circuits. He made no statement about the affair.
